Review:

Previously we were introduced to Jundub bin Junada Al-Gifari also known to us as Abu Dhar al-Gifari. We read that he was raised in a valley of the Desert amongst the Gifar tribesmen. Their creed was to commit robbery, and invade other tribes to exist or survive. The people of Gifar lived in poverty and misery. We have understood that (Abu Dhar) would enter the desert and be amazed at the many stars above him causing him to wonder about the universe and its vastness. We discovered that (Abu Dhar) and the tribesmen would visit Mecca once a year, like all of the other tribal Arabs, to worship the idols in that their idols would forgive them the past sins of the year.

So now, we continue to read to find out what happens next? InshaAllah...

Be attentive, listen, read, and reflect upon what you learn.

Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala says:

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah, of them some have fulfilled their obligations and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed in the least.”

Surah 33:23

Review Section Materials/Explanation

Review the previous section on Abu Dhar les.5.1. Review the vocabulary. Then read pages 17- 23 on Abu Dhar. Once you have read the text. Reflect upon the vocabulary and its meanings. Arrange the words or word phrases in alphabetical order.

Write an essay to discuss what you imagine living in the desert would be like. Interview a Muslim you know from a foreign country, asked them to " paint you a picture " with words of course of how it is to live there. Use as many of the vocabulary words as possible if not all of them in your essay. To complete your exercise, explain the condition of the Gifar tribesmen in your own words. This will ensure that you have understood the description of the people.
