Abu Dhar Al-Gifari (radi allahu anhu)

Struggle for Equality

Introduction:

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatahu, Ya Muslims may Allah the Bestower of Mercy, have mercy upon you as you transverse upon this path of seeking beneficial knowledge ameen. Alhamdulillah, I praise, glorify and magnify Allah the Most High, for surely he is above all imperfection. I bear witness that there is no true god worthy of worship except Allah alone (having no partners) and I bear witness that Muhammad ibn Abdullah is the slave and Messenger of Allah (salla allahu alaihi was salaam). I send the salaam and salaams upon the messenger of Allah, his family and his righteous companions.

Amma Ba'd

You should have by now read the previous accounts related about Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, Umar bin Al-Kitab, Uthmaan bin Affan, and Ali bin Abi Talib (The four rightly guided caliphate). We have discussed from our readings some of the hardships, struggles, trials, and fitnah that did befall the Muslims during those times. We have learned the tremendous qualities of good manners, courageousness, honor, truthfulness, and zeal made for the sacrifices of Islam, and for establishing the belief that all of mankind should have and that is to Worship Allah Alone.

In this next section, we shall continue to learn about the companions of our beloved messenger, those who stood firm in their belief, never wavering, never finding fault in what was presented to them and guiding the people to stay upon that which the messenger Muhammad (salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) came with, the Qur'aan and Sunnah.

Be attentive, listen, read, and reflect upon what you learn. Think about your own lives, the lives of the people around you and see if you can implement some of the qualities of these great men in your homes and communities but most of all in yourselves!

Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala says:

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah, of them some have fulfilled their obligations and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed in the least.”

Surah 33:23
