

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Lesson 6:4

Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwam (radi allahu anhu)

The Disciple

Introduction:

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatahu, Ya Muslimoon may Allah the Bestower of Mercy, have mercy upon you and your families as you transverse upon this path of seeking beneficial knowledge Aameen.

Alhamdulillah, all praise, glorification and magnification are for Allah the Most High, for surely he is above all imperfection. I bear witness that there is no true god worthy of (or who has a right to be) worship except Allah alone (having no partners) and I bear witness that Muhammad Ibn Abdullah is the slave and Messenger of Allah (salla allahu alaihi wa sallam). I send the salaah and salaams upon the messenger of Allah, his family and his righteous companions.

Amma Ba'd (To proceed then :)

You should have completed and read the previous accounts related about Abu Bakr As- Siddiq, Umar bin Al-Kittab, Uthmaan bin Affan, Ali bin Abi Talib (The four rightly guided caliphate) and Abu Dhar al-Gifari radi allahu anhumma before continuing on to this lesson.

We have discussed from our previous readings some of the continuous hardships, struggles, trials, and fitnah that occurred while establishing the Ummah. So far, we have learned the tremendous qualities of good manners, courageousness, honor, truthfulness, and zeal made for the sacrifices of Islam, and for establishing the belief that all of mankind should Worship Allah Alone and this is the establishment of Tawheed Alhamdulillah.

In this next section, we shall continue to learn about the companions of our beloved messenger, and they are many, they are those who stood firm in their belief, never wavering, or finding fault in what was presented to them.

They assisted in guiding the people to stay upon the path of righteousness which the messenger Muhammad (salla allahu alaihi wa sallam) came with, (the Qur'aan and Sunnah) and they died upon that same belief.

Worksheet Series Part II

You are advised to be attentive, listen closely, read, and reflect upon what you learn. To apply the 4R's in memorization of Qur'aan and Ahaadith. To think about your own lives, the lives of the people around you. Then reflect and see if you can implement some of the qualities of these great men and women in your homes, your communities, but most of all in yourselves!

Apply the 4R's: Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala says:

"Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah, of them some have fulfilled their obligations and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed in the least."

Suratul Al-Ahzab 33:23

Review Section:

Review the previous section on Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwam. Study the new vocabulary. Then read pages 38 – 48 on Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwam (radi allahu anhu). Once you have read the text. Reflect upon the vocabulary and its meanings. Define the words or word phrases. Write a paragraph using as many of the new vocabulary words as possible if not all of them inshaAllah

To complete this exercise, write a sentence for each vocabulary word. This will ensure that you are using the word in the right context that it was intended. Review for understanding.
