

Cumulative Review: Unit 1

► Exercise 1 Write the part of speech above each italicized word: N for noun, P for pronoun, V for verb, adj. for adjective, adv. for adverb, prep. for preposition, int. for interjection, or conj. for conjunction.

adv.V*N

The very cute little chicks pranced around like so many fuzzy toy ostriches.

- Are you ready for the big street festival next week, my friends?
- Wow!* The circus paraded right through the center of town and past my house.
- The wide green pasture stretched down the hillside.
- The park and the playground have been closed for renovations.
- I simply cannot find that coffee cup, and I've looked everywhere.
- Oh, no,* the alarm clock didn't go off, and I will be late for work!
- A thesaurus is absolutely essential for a student to have.
- The young tree has developed only a few leaves, and they don't look very healthy.
- I have a long drive to work every day, but the radio makes the trip pleasant.
- Observe* the glacier moving down the mountainside, destroying everything in its path.
- I bought that green fern for my desk; I call it Kermit.
- The distant hills look purple from this vantage point, don't they?
- My computer has more than enough memory but not enough RAM for my needs.
- Are the works of J.R.R. Tolkien the only twentieth-century writings that will be read a thousand years from now?
- The girls' basketball team does much better than the boys' team each year.
- Ah,* do you hear the coyote pups yipping in the morning for their mother?
- There's a rainbow—a real, complete, fantastic rainbow—arching across the sky.
- My cousin tells fascinating traditional stories about my family's ethnic heritage.
- I'd love the summer unreservedly if it weren't for the mosquitoes.
- The* music I most enjoy is Gregorian chants.
- Regina is a whiz at these card games, but I never really understand them.
- Do you know when the recycling truck will come again?