

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Abu Dhar Al-Gifari (radi allahu anhu)

Struggle for Equality

Introduction:

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatahu, Ya Muslims may Allah the Bestower of Mercy, have mercy upon you as you transverse upon this path of seeking beneficial knowledge ameen. Alhamdulillah, I praise, glorify and magnify Allah the Most High, for surely he is above all imperfection. I bear witness that there is no true god worthy of worship except Allah alone (having no partners) and I bear witness that Muhammad ibn Abdullah is the slave and Messenger of Allah (salla allahu alaihi was salaam). I send the salaam and salaams upon the messenger of Allah, his family and his righteous companions.

Review:

Although Abu Dhar did not travel to Mecca with his tribe, he was intrigued by the stories being told of the news of a man proclaiming Prophethood in Mecca. We are told that he contemplated and kept in deep thought about this news; so much so that he talked his brother Unays into traveling back to Mecca to find out more. Even after this, he was not content and set out on a journey in search of truth for himself...

Upon hearing the recitation of Qur'aan from our noble Messenger ﷺ, Abu Dhar (radi allahu anhu), is now a Muslim calling to the path of righteousness and spreading the invitation of Islam to all of his tribesmen, and the tribes that surround them... Abu Dhar without doubt has entered the path of guidance (May Allah have mercy upon him ameen).

So now, we continue to read to find out what happens next? InshaAllah...

Be attentive, listen, read, and reflect upon what you learn.

Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala says:

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah, of them some have fulfilled their obligations and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed in the least.”

Surah 33:23
