

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Name/Kunya:	Test 2: Lesson One P.2
Class: Explanation of Important Lessons	Due Date: May 2, 2008

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatahu

Alhamdulillah you have reached the end of your second Lesson for section one in this course. May Allah reward you and keep you amongst those who seek beneficial knowledge ameen. For completion of this section you must review the study of section (lesson One) along with some explanations from worksheets and notes given. You are responsible for answering the following questions to the best of your ability. You will be asked to provide the proof and evidence for your statements in some instances; you may in your essay question provide other resources from authentic references only. You are not permitted to use your text and notes. May Allah grant you success Aameen

Rule for this exam: You are permitted to use your notes, the class textbook or any worksheets for this test. You can use your Qur’aan, Hadith, or Tafsir to provide correct quotation of proofs and evidence.

1. The prophet (salla allahu alaihi wa sallaam) used to say this dua of al-Isti’athah when he stood up at night: I take refuge with Allah, the _____, the _____, from the accursed Shaytan – from his _____, his _____, and his madness. Recorded by the _____

2. What is the meaning of the exalted word ‘Allah’?

3. What is meant by the phrase “O Rahman over this world”?

4. The word Ar-Raheem is specific to the believers in the hereafter, what statement and ayaat confirms this?

5. Give the proof for the following:

Recitation of Ummul-Quran is obligatory in the salaah.

6. Explain with complete sentence structure the meaning of the word “Ibaadah”

↑

7. From surah al-Fatihah, what ayat is an affirmation of Prophethood?

8. What does Tawheed ar-Ruboobiyah mean?

9. There is another title/word that can be used for az-Zalzalah what is it?

10. What is the meaning for Allah’s statement “And when the earth throws out its burdens.”?

11. What does Ma lahaa mean?

12. Allah Almighty encourages us to do good deeds – even if they are small – and warns us against performing evil deeds – even if they are small. What hadith provides the proof for this statement?

13. How does surah Az-Zalzalah and Al-Adiyat relate to one another?

14. What is the meaning of Subha? (Please provide a complete sentence.)

15. When a person combines shirk with an act of worship what happens?

16. Horses have a high status amongst the believers; therefore, we should take very good care of them. Explain why they should be trained.

17. In surah al-Qari’ah, what question is used to instill fear in the hearts of man? Explain how a person should reflect because of this question.

18. What is the proof, that the hell fire (an-Naar) is “black and dark.”?

19. What is your evidence, that we will see the Hell-Fire with certainty of sight?

20. Explain: When will you be asked about the pleasures that you have indulged in?

21. Explain what is meant by “al-Haakum.”

22. Our belief that there is punishment in the grave is affirmed in what ayat of surah at-Takaathur?

23. Essay Question. Name the four stages, that if one completes them he will achieve completion.

This Test Series to be used with “Explanation of Important Lessons (for every Muslim)”

24. Essay Question. What is the meaning of Wal-Asr? (Please write in complete sentence)

25. From the general benefits of surah al-Asr we learned that one of the best deeds is for us to perform what action?

*Current enrolled students who missed the oral exam in class (Saturday, April 26, 2008) will automatically receive a 10 point reduction for this written exam.

All other submissions are welcome and shall be graded accordingly.

Barakallahu Feekunna

This is Test 2 of 3 for Lesson One
THM Sadaqa Group
Important Lessons

At the end of your questionnaire/test you are asked to submit your completed test to thmsadaqagroup@gmail.com All grades will be responded to individually by the Instructor before the start of our next class inshaAllah.