The life of The Noble Prophet

“Muhammad (salla allahu alaihi wa sallam) is the Messenger of Allah, and those who are with him are severe against the disbelievers, and merciful amongst themselves. You see them bowing, prostrating, seeking bounty from Allah and (His) good pleasure. The mark of them is on their faces from the traces of their prostrations. This is their description in the Torah. But their description in the Injeel is like the sown seed which sends forth it’s shoot, then makes it strong, it then becomes thick, and it stands straight on it’s stem delighting the sowers – that He may enrage the disbelievers with them. Allah has promised those who believe and do righteous good deeds, among them forgiveness and a mighty reward.” (Al-Fatah: 29)

First we would like to glorify, praise, and thank Allah subhana wa ta’ala that he has enabled us to be a part of this tremendous work of explaining to our children who our beloved Prophet Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) is and we would like to testify that (He) is the only true god worthy of worship and that we bear witness that Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) is the Messenger of Allah. ## The life of The Noble Prophet

Lesson 1: The Heart of the Muslim is filled with love for the Prophet (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam)

The heart of the Muslim/Muslimah is filled with the love of the last Prophet Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) and this love for the Messenger of Allah is an asset for him/her. Love and respect for a person depends on the benefits, we get from him. As for the Prophet he is the greatest of benefits for all of humanity. Every Muslim should have the deepest love for him.

Every deed of the Prophet Muhammad's (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) life is to be followed by every individual of the Muslim Ummah (community). Loving the Prophet has been made a test for your faith.

Allah says:

“Say (O Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) to mankind): If you really love Allah then follow me (Islamic Monotheism, The Quran and The Sunnah), Allah will love you...” 3:31

Love of the messenger of Allah is a part of our faith. There is a hadith that says:

“None of you has faith unless I am dearer to him than his father and his son and all of mankind.”

Bits of Knowledge:

The biography of the life of our noble prophet Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) is a very good reference of study when wanting to learn who he is. You may take your time and read through “The Sealed Nectar” by Safi-ur-Rahman Al-Mubarakpuri. This text will aid you in these lessons, inshaAllah. You may also use The Noble Quran, along with various hadith from Sahih Bukhari, Muslim, Dawuud, and At-Tirmithi. Other resources will be cited as we move along.

The Prophet Muhammad (salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) the seal of the prophets was born in Bani Hashim in Mecca on a Monday morning, the ninth day of Rabi' Al-Awwal the same year of the Elephant event told in the Quran. He became a prophet when he was 40 years of age.

Important things to remember inshaAllah:

Whenever you see, here, or read the name of the Prophet Muhammad you should be reminded to send salaams upon him by saying (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) this means “May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him.” Allah has stated in Surah Al-Ahzab: 56 “Allah sends His Salaat (Graces, Honors, Blessings, Mercy) on the Prophet (Muhammad -Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam), and also His angels (ask Allah to bless and forgive him). O you who believe! Send your Salat on him, and greet him with the Islamic way of greeting (As-salaamu Alaikum).”

Do not become lazy in this affair for it is a command from Allah!

The Prophet Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) has warned us in the Sunnah also: “Do not exaggerate in praising me as the Christians did to (Jesus) the son of Mary, for I am only a servant, so say {he is} the servant of Allah and his Messenger.” Sahih Bukhari.

Allah has sent many prophets and messengers to mankind before he sent our last and final prophet. Muslims believe in each and every one of these messengers and prophets, the message that they brought (Tawheed), without any distinction between them. All of them came to teach the people to worship Allah alone and to submit to his will. The prophets and Messengers dating back to Adam (alaihi wa salaam) taught us the good things we should do, and the bad things we should stay away from and not do.

Unfortunately, as time passed, the people forgot the teachings of the prophets. Some became evil and ignorant, so ignorant that they have changed the books of Allah that were revealed to these previous Prophets and Messengers. Still today in some societies you will find people who are worshipping prophets, statues, pictures and other objects in place of worshipping Allah Alone. May Allah protect all of us from this calamity ameen

To deny Allah or the Sunnah of the Messenger like this or in any other fashion (way) is called an act of Kufr. The one who denies Allah and worships anything other than Allah is called a Kafir.

Most people believe in Allah, but some of them also believe that others share in Allah’s powers and authority, or even that he has partners. This kind of incorrect belief is called Shirk. People who commit acts of shirk are called the Mushrikûn.

Allah has forbidden acts of Kufr and Shirk. When he sent the Prophet Muhammad (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) to the world as his last Prophet. He came to remove Kufr and Shirk from the people by teaching them Tawheed.

Allah sent the last book The Noble Quran to the Messenger of Allah (Salla allahu alaihi wa salaam) by way of the Angel Jibril (alaihi wa salaam). The Noble Quran is the book of Allah. Allah has promised to protect the Noble book; therefore no one has the ability to change it, Alhamdulillah.
